BW said it has been a hard year and we have done amazing. They lost a foster child this year and the Compassion packs have helped. JT says thank you for the thoughts. It has been a hard year but we have continued regardless. Lots of work has gone on behind the scenes and we have managed to continue. BW says that people struggle to get to events now we have grown larger. She wonders if we could do something other than first come and first serve? Maybe we send out an email that says when the tickets are being released before releasing rather than just releasing them. The Committee discussed this and agreed to give a week's notice of ticket release date and time. We will trial this and review at the next Committee meeting in 3 months.
